What you need to do

- As you did not redeem your goods before the end of the loan period, your goods have been sold.
- The details of the goods, the amount obtained on their sale, the outstanding amount of the loan and the reasonable costs of sale are listed below.
- You need to go to the pawnbroker at the above address to claim this money. If you do not claim the money by the date referred to above, the pawnbroker is entitled to keep it.
- The pawnbroker may ask you to produce some identification when you claim this money.
- It is illegal for the pawnbroker to refuse to pay you money left over from the sale of your goods if you request payment within 12 months after the sale of your goods. If the pawnbroker refuses to pay you, you may make an application to the Magistrates' Court for an order that the pawnbroker pay you the money.
- If you have any questions about your rights when you pawn goods or if you have a complaint about a pawnbroker, you can get advice from Consumer Affairs Victoria on 1300 55 81 81.
